Fellow Rorters,

The members of Alstonville Apex 40 Club (formed September, 1986) bid you welcome to the 1987 National Rort. A great weekend has been organised for you - a weekend where you will tour our sub-tropical paradise, our rainforest and beaches and sample the club life of Northern N.S.W.

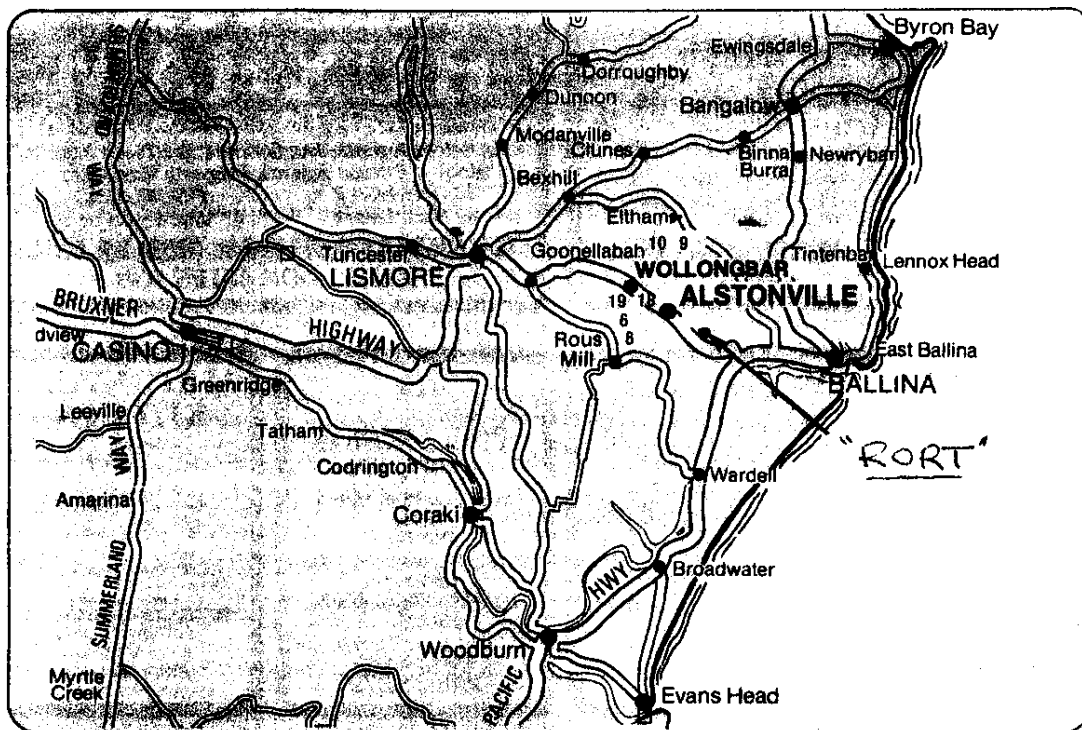

From an extensive coach trip of the area to a fun run on Sunday, feasts of local seafood and three nights to dance your heart away if you so desire, we can guarantee you the weekend of a lifetime.

The Rort commences on Friday June 5th with a Welcome Social and supper. It ends Sunday night, June 7th at a Seafood Smorgasbord at Ballina RSL on the waterfront leaving a free day on Monday to catch up with whatever you've missed out on.

Registration forms are attached, all we ask is that you return them as soon as possible with fees and accommodation deposit and T-shirt orders as required. But certainly by May 1st, 1987.

Closest jet airports are Ballina (16 klm), Casino (50 klm) or Coolangatta (100 klm) if you plan to fly. Bus transport servicing are many and varied with Kirklands Coaches being the local carrier.

Alstonville and Ballina are just over 800 klms north by road from Sydney and 100 klms south of Queensland border at Coolangatta.

If you accomplish nothing else in 1987, make sure you participate in this years Rort on June 5th - 6th & 7th at Alstonville.

Yours in Continuing Fellowship,

KEVIN HUXHAM.
