SUBMISSION TO INTERNATIONAL BOARD

As reported last issue, President Lionel has done a lot of work and put a great deal of effort into preparing our submission. International Board does not meet until November, we shall wait the result of our submission.

You will be very pleased to know that Life Governor Ewen Laird has accepted Honorary Membership of Apex 40 and the following is a copy of his acceptance.

"Thankyou very much for your letter of 30th July. I apologise for this tardy reply but I have been away for about 5 weeks having a holiday and doing a few jobs for the Apex Clubs in Queensland. 26th August, 1975.

Needless to say I was delighted to receive the invitation of Lionel Mussell and the members of Apex Forty to become an Honorary Life Member and I accept with great pleasure.

I am a member of the Geelong Oasis Club and still enjoy the fellowship of ex Apexians.

I was most interested to receive the printed matter on Apex Forty, also I have heard quite a bit about it at Apex functions I have attended and I think ex Apexians are anxious to see the idea develop. Frankly I would like to see them all with the one official name with the blessing of Apex.

You will be sorry to learn that Langham Proud has been very ill and has had major heart surgery at Prince Henry's Hospital. I saw him yesterday and he is recovering slowly. It will be a long job. He may go home to Horsham by ambulance at the end of this week.

With regard and best wishes to all at Apex Forty.

Yours Sincerely, Ewen Laird."

IN PASSING - Part 2.

Last issue you will recall our 1st hand report describing the attack with an axe on a 4,000 lb. bull. Our guilty member responded with a piece of poetry.

| 1. 'Twas sweet to read,
Knowing you took heed,
Of my prowess in the paper,
And of my claim to fame,
Well, it's all in the game,
And something of a caper. | 4. For you see, dear Kevin,
You have committed a sin,
Your spelling is really quite airy,
What become of the "E"
and the "R" that should be
In my title of VetERinary? |
| 2. Tho' 'tis sad to relate,
Owing to the date,
Being already booked before,
I won't be there
To take my share,
Of punishment, from the floor. | 5. On re-reading your screed,
Yet another misdeed,
You seem to really be stiff,
For the Friday you mention,
Was not by intention
The 28th; but the 25th. |
| 3. "Twill keep", you say,
For another day,
When we all meet for Dinner,
Well, just be careful, my lad,
For your spelling is bad,
And I may come out a winner. | 6. Joyce and I have to go,
On the 16th; you know,
To Moe Apex Handover "Do"
Our apologies are sent,
And really are meant,
For causing this hullabaloo. |

They are booked in to come on October 1st so we will fine them then.

Kevin Frazer.
